Enapter AG: Ivan Gruber becomes CTO

- ≡ Ivan Gruber has extensive experience in the field of hydrogen technology
- ≡ The expansion of the Management Board reflects the further growth of the Enapter Group

Berlin, September 03, 2024: The Supervisory Board of Enapter AG (ISIN: DE000A255G02) has appointed Ivan Gruber as Chief Technology Officer (CTO) of the company with effect from September 1, 2024. The now three-member Management Board team consists of Dr. Jürgen Laakmann (CEO), Gerrit Kaufhold (CFO) and Ivan Gruber (CTO).

After studying at ETH Zurich and working at McKinsey and Durst Phototechnik AG, Ivan Gruber spent several years at GKN Automotive as an engineer responsible for system tests in the field of electromobility. Most recently, he was Vice President at GKN Hydrogen, an international manufacturer of green hydrogen storage systems in South Tyrol.

With the expanded Management Board team, Enapter is strengthening its market position and continuing to drive forward its growth strategy.

Armin Steiner, Chairman of the Supervisory Board of Enapter: "We are delighted to have Ivan Gruber, a proven expert in the field of hydrogen, join the Enapter Management Board. With this strong Management Board, Enapter is ideally equipped for further international growth and can drive forward its innovative product developments with even greater focus."

About Enapter

Enapter is the market leader in the field of AEM electrolyzers - innovative devices that produce green hydrogen. The company's patented and proven anion exchange membrane (AEM) technology eliminates the need for expensive and rare raw materials such as iridium and enables maximum yield from fluctuating renewable energies such as solar and wind through a unique modular design, resulting in highly efficient production of green hydrogen. Thousands of Enapter AEM electrolyzers are already in use at over 340 customers in more than 50 countries in the fields of energy storage, industrial applications, refueling, power-to-X and research. The Enapter Group is headquartered in Germany and has a research and production site in Italy.

Enapter AG (H2O) is listed on the regulated market of the Frankfurt and Hamburg stock exchanges, ISIN: DE000A255G02.
